Offering Compassion, Care, and Hope for Our Homeless Families in Houston County

For only $2.47 a week, you can become a patron of CLUB 247 helping our Family Promise Network make a difference in the lives of homeless children and their families in our community.

Everyday of every week, 24 hours a day, Family Promise of Greater Houston County will provide overnight accommodations, meals, clothing, and services for moms, dads, and children who have recently lost their homes. The mission of FPGHC is to help families regain their independence while offering services and programs for locating and securing new housing, employment, and job training. Our mission is also to help keep parents and children together and to remain in their community, schools, and jobs while preserving the dignity, safety, and well being of their family.

When you join CLUB 247, you help us to provide professional assistance to homeless families. As a CLUB 247 patron, you will be acknowledged in our newsletter.

Individuals, Sunday School classes, Bible Study groups, and other groups can participate in CLUB 247.

Family Promise of Greater Houston County, Inc. is a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization addressing issues of homelessness for families in Houston County, GA. Contributions are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law.
